report Dear sic, In your repty upon which ncy tark to a reing and that you tell me will be complete today, it will be your first duty to explain a fully the nature of our studies. increasing heavy expenses. We shall express expect you to bring your report to a special committee meeting this evening rather than send it as you usually do. You will be glad to hear that our section head formed to us today that he would accept your on regarding the method employed by our house in our aim to reduce waste to a minimum. He knows that you have gone furthur into an analysis of particulars then any of the others in our company and will give us some good thoughts on these questions. I suppose that if the truth abour our finances were known by every official in our company they would tallow your opinion in a body and let nothing change their decise decision. Very truly yours

steadily
